PG DIPLOMA IN ECONOMICS

COURSE BROCHURE (2026-27)

INTRODUCTION

Mangalayatan Online offers a PG diploma in economics comprising a one-year semester-oriented course. Our course curriculum is designed by expert educators to strengthen student's knowledge of statistical methods, international economics, modern policy challenges, and capital budgeting. Our semester curriculum offers careers in research, government, finance, banking, and policy analysis, equipping students with high-quality academic knowledge and diverse opportunities for competitive jobs. Our industry-relevant course curriculum is aligned with current market trends and global economic practices, with case studies and real-world economic analysis.

MISSION:

- To encourage students to gain academic knowledge of economic theories, statistical analysis, and quantitative methods to interpret financial trends.
- To enhance students' research-oriented knowledge and develop quantitative techniques, research methodology, and economic modeling skills.
- To motivate students to cultivate their critical thinking abilities through evidence-based policy formulation.
- To foster students' professional abilities to allocate budgets and analyze capital planning for the development of public policy.

OBJECTIVES:

- To enhance students' foundational knowledge of academics and the adapted economic model.
- To encourage students to develop cross-cultural understanding and build professional competencies.
- To motivate students for active civic participation, identify biases, and build decision-making abilities to form critical evaluations.
