PG DIPLOMA IN POLITICAL STUDIES

COURSE BROCHURE (2026-27)

INTRODUCTION

We offer an online PG Diploma in Political Studies that concludes western political thought and theoretical approaches to understand urban political outlook in the world of globalization. The course modules cover topics of Indian Governance, political movements, political history, gender politics, and constitutional development in India. The curriculum elucidates law reforms, analysis of the political philosophy of Western political thinkers, and comparison between Western political traditions and international contemporary political trends to understand social change. Besides, it also sketches the financial model for social welfare.

MISSION:

•   To encourage students to develop a deeper understanding of the Indian political system and Governance to take research roles with enhanced knowledge and skills.

•   To motivate them to extend their knowledge in understanding public policy and contribute to their role in social participation as informed citizens.

OBJECTIVES:

•   To prepare candidates to enhance their analytical and critical thinking skills and be adaptive to social, economic, and cultural changes to participate as responsible natives.

•   To make them aware of political and governance challenges, and to propose suitable solutions for positive change in society.
