INTRODUCTION

We offer an online Diploma in Arts and Humanities to acquaint students with social science and the Indian social structure. Our diploma modules offer foundational knowledge of sociological concepts, leading to insight into social issues and social changes. These two-semester modules cover economic theory, real-world economic issues, and concepts of microeconomics and macroeconomics. Students will gain knowledge of market dynamics for price determination, political theory and concepts, English literature, and economic activities in the domestic and global landscape.

MISSION:

- ◆ To cultivate analytical skills to assess the implications of social, political, and economic change on diverse institutions and inculcate critical thinking abilities to evaluate the consequences of these changes with depth and nuance.
- ◆ To encourage reflective thinking about the political, social, and economic scenario among the students and create a better understanding of in-demand skills to analyze and resolve complex issues.

OBJECTIVES:

- ◆ To develop our learners' capacity to apply theoretical frameworks, thereby predicting and navigating future social transformations effectively.
- ◆ To encourage students to enhance their efficiency and productivity with interpersonal skills, thereby contributing to their role in government and non-profit organizations, to conduct studies on social issues.
